

Fort Rowdy Gathering
October 2 & 3, 2010
Covington, Ohio

Rules for Arts & Crafts and Trade Demonstrators

General Information

- Booth space is limited to 450 square feet (your own tent.)
- If you want space in our craft tent, you may choose 10 x 10 or 10 x 20.
- No commercial style trailer. This is a living history event and tent colors must be in keeping with the time period (white, off-white, tan or brown.) Any other colors are subject to approval by the Fort Rowdy Gathering Board.
- Absolutely NO portable generators on the grounds.
- Booth set-up is anytime Friday, October 1st, 2010.
- Booth is to be open Saturday from 11:00 am to 9:00 pm, Sunday from 12:00 noon until 6:00 pm.
- Electricity will be provided, but you will need extension cords and lighting for Saturday night, (For the time between night fall and the fireworks at about 9:00 PM)
- Vendor parking will be in the upper ball diamond in the park.
- You are responsible for proper clean up of your area.
- We will be providing security Friday and Saturday nights.
- No dogs. (By order of the Covington City Council)
- For additional information call Mark Schilling at (H) 937-473-8167 or (cell) 937-570-6622.

Arts and Crafts

- You must follow the tax guidelines up by the state of Ohio including proper vendor's license.
- Applications are due by September 15, 2010.

Trade Demonstrations

- We encourage you to participate and exhibit such skills and trades as, but not limited to, blacksmithing, flint napping, leatherworking, quilting and other types of needlework, jewelry making, gunsmith, lace making, potter, tinsmith, candle making, soap making, basketry and the preparation of foods such as bread, apple butter, cracklings, etc.
- If you demonstrate during the open hours of Gathering you may only take orders for your product.

All applications subject approval by the board of directors of the Fort Rowdy Gathering.